3 Images

Overview

Product name	Anti-TTF1 antibody
Description	Rabbit polyclonal to TTF1
Specificity	ab125650 is predicted to not cross-react with other NK2 homeobox family members. At least three isoforms of TTF1 are known to exist; ab125650 will detect all three.
Tested applications	Suitable for: ICC/IF, IHC-P, WB
Species reactivity	Reacts with: Mouse, Rat, Human
Immunogen	Synthetic peptide, corresponding to 16 amino acids near the N terminus of Human TTF1 (P43699).
Positive control	Rat lung tissue lysate.

Target

Function	Transcription factor that binds and activates the promoter of thyroid specific genes such as thyroglobulin, thyroperoxidase, and thyrotropin receptor. Crucial in the maintenance of the thyroid differentiation phenotype. May play a role in lung development and surfactant homeostasis.
Tissue specificity	Thyroid and lung.
Involvement in disease	Defects in NKX2-1 are the cause of benign hereditary chorea (BHC) [MIM:118700]; also known as hereditary chorea without dementia. BHC is an autosomal dominant movement disorder. The early onset of symptoms (usually before the age of 5) and the observation that in some BHC families the symptoms tend to decrease in adulthood suggests that the disorder results from a developmental disturbance of the brain. BHC is non-progressive and patients have normal or slightly below normal intelligence. There is considerable inter- and intrafamilial variability, including dysarthria, axial dystonia and gait disturbances. Defects in NKX2-1 are the cause of choreoathetosis, hypothyroidism, and neonatal respiratory distress (CHNRD) [MIM:610978]. This syndrome include neurological, thyroid, and respiratory problems.
Sequence similarities	Belongs to the NK-2 homeobox family. Contains 1 homeobox DNA-binding domain.
Post-translational modifications	Phosphorylated on serine residues.
Cellular localization	Nucleus.
