General Info

Function	This inhibitor acts as 'bait' for tissue plasminogen activator, urokinase, and protein C. Its rapid interaction with TPA may function as a major control point in the regulation of fibrinolysis.
Tissue specificity	Found in plasma and platelets and in endothelial, hepatoma and fibrosarcoma cells.
Involvement in disease	Defects in SERPINE1 are the cause of plasminogen activator inhibitor-1 deficiency (PAI-1D) [MIM:613329]. It is a hematologic disorder characterized by increased bleeding after trauma, injury, or surgery. Affected females have menorrhagia. The bleeding defect is due to increased fibrinolysis of fibrin blood clots due to deficiency of plasminogen activator inhibitor-1, which inhibits tissue and urinary activators of plasminogen.

Note=High concentrations of SERPINE1 seem to contribute to the development of venous but not arterial occlusions.

Sequence similarities	Belongs to the serpin family.
Post-translational modifications	Inactivated by proteolytic attack of the urokinase-type (u-PA) and the tissue-type (TPA), cleaving the 369-Arg-Met-370 bond.
Cellular localization	Secreted.
