

Getting to De Rode Hoed

Keizersgracht 102

Tel: +31-20-6385606

De Rode Hoed is located in the centre of Amsterdam and is best reached by public transport, located at about 15 minutes walking from Amsterdam Central Train Station. Please note that getting to your destination in this area with many canals and small bridges may require some extra time.

Upon leaving Amsterdam Central Station, cross the tram rails and stay right. Walk across the bridge on your right. At the traffic lights, cross both streets towards Cafe Karpershoek / Play-Inn casino in front of you. Continue to the right, this is the Prins Hendrikkade. After appr. 100 m, follow the left turn, and immediately go right again across the bridge with the fish-shop. Turn left, then right again, at the corner with the coffee-shops (The Doors/The Bulldog).

This is the Brouwersgracht. Continue on the Brouwersgracht for appr. 200 m, past the playground, cross the bridge on the left, and continue on the bridge to the right. Turn left at the Keizersgracht (Emperor's Canal). You will find De Rode Hoed after appr 200 m, at nr 102.

When arriving by car, you can park at the ANWB Parking garage (P2) at Central Station, and follow the same route by foot, or park at De Kolk (P1, Nieuwezijds Voorburgwal) and follow the alternative route indicated on the map. The alternative route can also be taken when arriving by Tram 1, 2, 5, 13 or 17, from the stop called Nieuwezijds Kolk.
